

Never Compare

Questions

1. Reading Romans 12, do you believe you possess one of these gifts?
2. Are you thankful for the gifts God has given you or do you wish you had someone else's? Whom/where do you have a passion to serve?
3. What are some ways that you can serve (the church, workplace, home) that make you uncomfortable? What are some ways that you can serve that make you excited?
4. What were your thoughts on Simon Sinkek's "Start With Why" talk? What was the "why" that you came up with?
5. How can your passions help fulfill the Great Commission? (Louie Message)
6. Before now, did you realize how much your insecurities defined the relationships around you? Is there anything you need to do to make amends to these relationships?
7. What are your biggest takeaways from "The Freedom of Self-Forgetfulness?"
8. How has God uniquely equipped you to lead during this season of life?

Quotes/Principles

- "Our purpose doesn't need their perception."
- God won't give you success until you genuinely root for someone else's.
- Purpose without passion leads to burnout.

Additional Resources

- Read “Every Good Endeavor” by Tim Keller. Further exploring how your work is connected to God’s work.
- Read “Crazy Busy” by Kevin DeYoung. Envy, bitterness and rivalry get in the way of an established and organized life.