

NEVER HOLD BACK DISCUSSION

- 1. What is your biggest takeaway from tonight's talk? Which scripture was the most impactful to you? Why?
- 2. Briefly give your testimony within a two-minute time frame with the group. Which section of your testimony needs the most work? What group of people can you best reach with your testimony?
- 3. Practicing sharing 3 circles. Do you think the 3 circles would work for you? Is there another method that works better for you?
- 4. Does giving come easy to you or was it a struggle? What are your biggest hesitations in giving to a church?
- 5. Could you imagine yourself being like Mike and knowing all of your neighbors? What are easy ways to get to know those around you? (Neighborhood Podcast)
- 6. What did you think of the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea podcast? What are some of the ways that you've seen hostility towards Christianity in your own life? In what ways can we respond better to this hostility so that we won't hold back in investing in our neighborhoods and city?
- 7. What are ways you can seek the welfare of your city when you "grow up" and have a family and a job? Are you currently doing it?
- 8. How are you currently leading the way in irrational generosity for the glory of God and our people's joy?

Principles/Quotes

- "We are more effective in our mission when we stay true to our distinction."
- Seeing the might of God always leads to showing the mercy of God.
- In man's kingdom, the blessings stop with you. In God's kingdom, the blessings spread through you.
- God's gifts are for love, not leverage.

Additional Resources

- Read "Generous Justice" by Tim Keller
- Read "What is the Gospel?" by Greg Gilbert
- Read "The Fuel and the Flame" by Steve Shadrach